

ONE DAY DOCUMENTARY

When you want to capture real people doing real things, you're looking for a documentary film.

Long, boring, interviews aren't really our style, and they don't play well on social media either. We'll use documentary filmmaking to build a single deliverable for your brand that will make a big impact, even in today's fast paced, digital content environment.

We'll work together to find a captivating character and tell their story with heart in a way that engages your target audience.

What's included?

- ✓ Subject and character research.
- ✓ Development, review and approval of story and visual concepts
- ✓ One to two person production crew, including up to two days of travel
- ✓ One day video shoot at up to two locations, and one half-day for setup and staging
- ✓ Voiceover for taglines and royalty-free music
- ✓ Post production, including editing, basic titles, lower thirds and graphics.
- ✓ Streamlined proofing and delivery via our web-based software.
- ✓ Project maintenance, including data backup and secure archival
